Time & Bill Professional™

DELUXE EDITION

Companies all over the world use Time & Bill Professional™ to handle their day-to-day time tracking, job costing, project management, billing, and invoicing tasks. Here's what some of them have said...*

"A key benefit is how Time & Bill Professional can effectively track billable hours to recover costs and to isolate pre-, post-, and production phase hours...with Time & Bill Professional, we track time and expenses, and produce project management reports, generate invoices, and track funding against projects."
— Federal Aviation Administration Multi-Media Group

Time & Bill Professional allowed my company to do away with the cumbersome and error prone manual timecards that were the basis of our payroll and product costing systems..."
— Bill. Schneider, President, Maps, Etc. Company

"Any solution we bring into our firm has to do one thing: Make us money. That requirement applies to practice management software as much as tax preparation, consulting, or valuation analysis software." — Alan Fox, Partner, Fox and Fiorino, P.A.

"The bottom line is that our clients are happier because we serve them better and faster. Our employees are happier because they financially benefit from empowerment. And our profits have grown..."
— Larry Gray, Managing Partner, Alfermann Gray and Company
